

CODE OF RESPONSIBILITIES

You make Iowa 4-H Youth Conference, Animal Science Round-Up, CSI: Crops, and Wild Outdoors - Shooting Sports a success. The following code outlines your responsibilities.

I will...

- ◆ follow the policies, regulations, and requests of my host, Iowa State University, and the Ames Community.
If ISU security must enforce policies, their penalty procedure supersedes those set by conference.
 - leave room, lounges, halls, and dining areas clean and neat.
 - cause no damage to university or private property.
 - not consume or possess alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, or illegal drugs.
 - not possess any fireworks or explosives.
 - not remove screens from residence hall windows. If removed, I will be billed at least a $50 fine (no warnings).
- ◆ attend all sessions and activities on time and in appropriate attire - no inappropriate imprints, bare midriffs, low-cut tops, no backless shirts, cut-offs, short shorts, or muscle shirts at any time. Spaghetti straps are acceptable as long as undergarment is not seen. Dresses and shorts should be long enough so everything is covered. Clothing is under the discretion of State Council members, Iowa 4-H Youth conference staff and chaperones. But if you have to ask if it's appropriate, then it probably isn't.
- ◆ treat other delegates, state council members, chaperones, session leaders, and ISU staff with respect and attention.
- ◆ enter only residence halls used by conference delegates.
- ◆ respect members of the opposite sex by not going onto their residence hall floors.
- ◆ only be in the one designated lounge area of a dorm of the opposite sex during conference.
- ◆ wear my name tag around my neck and meal band on wrist at all times (including dances).
- ◆ wear no hats indoors.
- ◆ stay on my dorm floor between lights out and 5:30 a.m.
- ◆ not order delivery food to arrive after 12 midnight.
- ◆ observe pedestrian traffic regulations; stay on sidewalks and walkways and cooperate with chaperones working to ensure safe crossing of street.
- ◆ not leave campus unless required by a scheduled conference activity.
- ◆ not drive a motorized vehicle during conference.
- ◆ assume legal and financial responsibility for traffic/parking tickets received.
- ◆ turn off or put my cell phone on SILENT during conference activities (or they may be taken).
- ◆ represent myself, my county, and state in a positive manner and be appropriate during sessions and workshops.

By not following the above Code, I will...

- ◆ be given a warning depending on the severity of the offense or unless offense is immediately handled by ISU security or residence staff.
- ◆ be restricted to Conference Headquarters during a recreation or dance event.
- ◆ have my parents contacted and possibly be sent home depending on the severity of the offense.
- ◆ be sent back to change.

The discipline review committee will be composed of members of the State 4-H Council, ISU Extension 4-H Youth Development staff, and chaperones. This committee has the responsibility for the safety of the total conference delegation. They have the right and responsibility to contact parents of delegates when appropriate. All Iowa laws that affect minors will be enforced, and delegates may be sent home if the committee determines it to be the most appropriate action.

Thank you for making this Conference a success.
