4-H Record Keeping
Self-evaluation Guide

Record keeping is one of the unique 4-H learning opportunities. During and at the end of the year, your record keeping can help you think about and record what you have accomplished. 4-H leaders can learn more about each 4-H'er and how they can best help them accomplish their 4-H goals by reviewing members’ record keeping and/or talking with the 4-H'ers.

Record keeping is a process (method) that can be used throughout life in many ways.

4-H'ers can learn:
- How to set goals
- To plan and do things to meet their goal(s)
- To collect and organize information
- To accept and complete responsibility
- To tell what they liked to do and learned

At the end of the year, we recommend using the 4-H Record Keeping Self-evaluation 4H-98 (on the other side of this page) as a guide to evaluate the 4-H record keeping system you chose to use.

It is most helpful to talk about what you have done during the year with a leader, another 4-H'er, a parent/guardian, or someone interested in your 4-H participation. They can help by asking questions or making suggestions to think about using the 4-H Member/Mentor Conference Guide VI-2025C-sas.

Evaluate, and next year can be even better!

Now that you have completed a self-evaluation for the year, you may wish to improve some of your record keeping skills. What could you plan to do differently, or could you try a different method of record keeping? The following resources, available from the county extension office, may be helpful to you, your parents, and/or your leader.

Member Resources
Achieving Goals through Record Keeping 4H-91
Using Audio or Video Tapes for 4-H Project Record Keeping 4H-97A
4-H Portfolio Guidelines 4H-97B

If you want to try another method of record keeping, check the resources listed. Your 4-H leader also can share other resources to help with 4-H record keeping choices and evaluation.
