An educational program sponsored by Iowa State University Extension & Outreach for North Central Iowa youth who want to learn more about beef production will be held Saturday, January 24, at the Ellsworth Community College Agriculture & Renewable Energy Center, south of Iowa Falls on Hwy 65 at 705 Ellsworth Ave. For a map and directions go to: http://www.iavalley.cc.ia.us/ecc/maps_directions.html. The program will run from 9:30 AM to 2:30 PM with registration beginning at 9:00 AM.

A variety of interactive workshops and sessions are being planned for youth 4th grade through 12th grade who register for this event. Youth will learn how to take vitals on a calf to determine if they are sick; how diseases spread and what would happen if a deadly disease came to Iowa; discover how the vet learns to identify the parts of a reproductive tract by palpation; and the science behind building and creating your own tasty hamburger! Qualifies as FSQA Certification for one year!

Cost is $5.00 per participant lunch included (Accompanying adult/s are welcome for $5 lunch fee). Please pre-register by January 16 at your County Extension Office, or send to the address below. Registrations must include the Iowa 4-H Medical Information/Release Form. For more information contact the Franklin County Extension Office at 641-456-4811. Cancellation due to weather will be announced on KLMJ, KQCR, KGLO, KIAI, KLSS, KRIB, KQWC, KJYL, and KIFG radio stations. Event must have a minimum of 20 participants to be held.
