

Annie's Project—Education for Farm Women
Class Syllabus 2011
Metro Annie's Project Location, Joliet, IL
Wednesday evenings July 13 to August 10, 2011
6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
Weitendorf Agricultural Education Center
17840 Laraway Road
Joliet, IL 60433

Register by calling Ruth Hambleton (618) 237 6441
Registration Fee: $75 collected at the end of the first class

Class #1 Human Resources and Time Management
July 13 Introduction to course
Introductory comments Ruth Hambleton
Risk Assessment Survey
Other housekeeping chores
Colors™ Chelsey Byers, MA, CTRS; Adult Life & Aging Educator
University of Illinois Extension
Farm Health & Safety (invited)

Class #2 Leasing Farmland; Ruth Hambleton July 20 Brigitte Franzen, CFP
July 20 Investing for Farm Families (Free on-line web course)

Business Plans (on-line)
In the process of building a business plan women learn:
Mission Statements and Goals
History and Traditions of Their Farms
How Property is Titled; Who Else Is In Their Business?

Class #3 Insurance basics and Estate Planning for Farm Women
July 27 Russell Dart, New York Life

Class #4 Financial Documentation; Ruth Hambleton
August 3 Balance Sheet
Income Statement
Cash Flow

Class #5 Suggested topic: Commodity marketing, Cathy Ekstrand Stewart-Peterson
August 10 Basics of marketing commodity crops, corn & soybeans