

The 4-H Clover Chatter is online!

Harrison County Extension offers three delivery options for the monthly 4-H Clover Chatter newsletter. 4-H'ers and their parents are encouraged to select one of the three options listed below. Complete this form, make a copy for your records, and mail one copy to the Harrison County Extension office at the address listed—or simply call us on our new 4-H toll free number 1-888-644-2105.

Name(s): _____

Address: _____ City: _____

4-H Club: _____ Home Phone: _____

Options—please check one of the three:

1. Our family chooses to access the 4-H Clover Chatter newsletter online only, which is posted monthly on the Harrison County web site. We understand that we will not be mailed or emailed a copy.
- Notes:
- The newsletter is posted online at www.extension.iastate.edu/harrison, select the Harrison Co. 4-H icon from the home page.
 - The newsletter will be posted by the first of each month so remind yourself to go online when you change your calendars, to see what's new. The online version can be printed a page at a time if you wish.

2. In addition to having the option of accessing the Clover Chatter online (see Option 1 above) my family would also like to receive an email copy of the newsletter sent to the email addresses listed below.
- Notes:
- In order to select this option it is strongly encouraged to have at least one parent's email address listed.
 - See the cover article on the front page, regarding our commitment to keep your email addresses private.
 - Please print clearly—as we all know, one incorrect letter and your email address will not work!

Parent's email address: _____

4-H member's email address: _____

4-H member's email address: _____

4-H member's email address: _____

4-H member's email address: _____

3. My family wishes to continue to receive the Clover Chatter in its printed format mailed to our home address.
