

You're Invited to a Crop Fair

“Better Information for a more Profitable Operation”

Boone Crop Fair — Friday Crop Focus

February 18, 2011
10:00 a.m.— 2:00 p.m.
Gigglin’ Goat (628 Story Street)
Boone, Iowa

Come to Boone to hear from top experts about some of the newest developments in agriculture, courtesy of West Central Cooperative, Iowa State University Boone County Extension, ISU Corn and Soybean Initiative, the Iowa Corn Promotion Board, and the Iowa Corn Growers Association.

This free crop fair is designed to give you direct access to timely information that can help make your operation more profitable.

For questions or to RSVP by Feb. 16 contact the Boone County Extension Office at 515.432.3882 or xboone@iastate.edu

Agenda

9:30 a.m. — Registration

10:00 a.m. — Program Begins

Grain Marketing in 2011

Chad Hart, ISU Economist

2011 Crop and Weather Outlook

Elwynn Taylor, ISU Extension Climatologist

12:00 p.m. — Free Lunch

Free to all crop fair attendees

1:00 p.m. — Program Resumes

300 Bushel Corn Management

Roger Elmore,
ISU Extension Corn Specialist

Sponsored by

West Central Cooperative

Iowa State University — Boone County Extension

ISU Corn and Soybean Initiative

