

Beef Cattle: Bobby May

A long time club calf producer, Mr. May travels all over the nation fitting cattle and doing demonstrations for youth. He will demonstrate fitting concepts for beef exhibitors. Mr. May has produced winning cattle all over the country, including Houston, Denver, Ft. Worth, San Antonio, Kansas City and the Iowa State Fair.

Horses: Pat Edler

Pat, along with her husband Dr. Phil Edler, are long time breeders of Nationally competitive Quarter Horses. Additionally, the Edlers' are strong supporters of 4-H and FFA.

Dairy: Mark Fisher

A professional dairy cattle groomer, Mark has worked many great herds across the U.S. fitting cattle for sales and shows. He has worked with Allyn Paulson from Beaver Dam, Wisconsin fitting cattle for many shows including, World Dairy Expo, Southern National, NAILE, Eastern National, Western National, and many state fairs along with clipping for several breed association sales and shows.

Swine: Ken & Austin Lane

Ken is a life long swine producer and judges shows throughout the Midwest. Austin, Ken's son, exhibits swine at many local, regional, and national shows. He has won showmanship competitions at the Iowa State Fair and AKSARBEN.

Clayton County Fairgrounds

26143 Ivory Road, Garnavillo, Iowa 52049

The Fairgrounds is located approximately 6.5 miles north of Garnavillo on Hwy 52. Please come to the show arena once you are on the grounds.

Topics will include: Nutrition-

Evaluation-Genetics-Selection and Fitting. Come with questions to ask our presenters, they are willing to help you improve your skills.

Livestock Clinic

Clayton County Fairgrounds National, Iowa May 30, 2009

Sheep.... 10 am

Swine 11 am

Dairy..... 10 am -1 pm

Beef..... 10 am -1 pm

Horse ... 10 am -1 pm

Iowa State University
Clayton County
Extension
563-245-1451

Livestock Clinic Presenters

Sheep: Chris Miller & Josh Volante

Both of these gentlemen have been involved in sheep production all of their lives. Both exhibited very competitively on the Northern Plains Club Lamb Circuit while in school. Each of them are still involved in preparing and showing lambs for Bob Kimm's spring ram and ewe sale.

Nutrition: Steve Wagner & Amy Stolee

Amy Stolee, Land O Lakes Purina Feeds beef account manager. Her family is also involved in raising and showing Hereford cattle. Steve Wagner is a nutritionist for Innovative Agriculture in Elkader Iowa.

Genetics: Jay Beck & Scott Cherne

Jay Beck—Reproductive Consultant-Genex corporation. Jay has the responsibility of reproductive consultant, mentoring and field training of new employees,

Scott Cherne, part owner of 150 head angus operation that sells seedstock and market steers. After high school, Scott attended Iowa State University and graduated with a BS in Agricultural Studies. Scott then joined Genex to work with local beef producers and relief breed throughout northeast Iowa.

Dairy

Swine

Horses

Beef

Sheep

Parents are encouraged to attend also!

Are you interested in sharpening your project skills? If so, plan on attending the 4-H and FFA Livestock Clinic on May 30th at the Clayton County Fairgrounds in National.

4-H and FFA Livestock Clinic

Iowa State University
Clayton County Extension

Daniel Lane
Tammy Muller

Phone: 563-245-1451

Fax: 563-245-1455

E-mail: danlane@iastate.edu

Extension programs are available to all without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, or disability.