CITIZENSHIP WASHINGTON FOCUS

Better Citizens Today, Better Leaders Tomorrow

Northwest 4-H Application
Citizenship Washington Focus 2010
June 4 – June 12

When: Depart early evening of Friday, June 4 & return home late Saturday June 12

Who: Northwest Iowa 4-H members currently in grades 10-12

What is it? CWF is a program coordinated by the National 4-H Center in Chevy Chase, Maryland. The 4-H Center is located 1 mile from Washington, D.C. Delegates from across the U.S. attend the week-long program. Highlights include: tours of Washington, D.C., workshops to enhance leadership & citizenship skills, assemblies with powerful keynote speakers, and ample time to create new friendships. Note: We will make an overnight stop at Gettysburg, PA, on the way to D.C.

Cost: Estimated- NOT FIRM: $1,200 per person (includes lodging, transportation, tour admission, & most meals) County sponsored scholarships and fundraising are encouraged to reduce the cost for the participant.

Want to come along? Fill out this form and send it in to get registered for a "proposed" Northwest Iowa 2010 trip. Indicate which bus you wish to participate with. Space is limited so get your form and deposit in by Friday, October 23, 2009. Seats are on first-come, first-served basis. Checks should be made out to and sent to:
