IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY
Extension and Outreach
Healthy People. Environments. Economies.

Improving quality of life for those who live and work in north central Iowa is the primary goal for Gary Hall as he works to empower others in delivering ISU Extension and Outreach information. Whether at a national convention talking to people from across the country or at a local community celebration, Gary develops relationships and partnerships that connect people's needs to education that improves their lives.

As a regional extension education director, Gary provides programming leadership for Cerro Gordo, Floyd, Franklin, Mitchell, and Worth counties and, on an interim basis, for Bremer and Black Hawk counties. He works with county extension councils to determine and implement as issue-based approach to deliver ISU Extension programs and resources.
