Strengthening Skills in Family Development and Parenting Education

Iowa State University Extension to Families is offering a certificate in Family Development and Parenting Education in one location at the same time.

The Family Development Certification (FDCT) and Partnering with Parents (PWP) trainings will be offered in Council Bluffs, Iowa in winter/spring 2009.

This combined training focuses on core competencies identified for family support workers including those needed for parenting education.

... and justice for all

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, and marital or family status. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Many materials can be made available in alternative formats for ADA clients. To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 14th and Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250-9410 or call 202-720-5964. Issued in furtherance of Cooperative Extension work, Acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914 in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Jack M. Payne, director, Cooperative Extension Service, Iowa State University of Science and Technology, Ames, Iowa.
