

Bremer County Clover Kids

Join us at the Bremer County Fair July 24- 30th, 2016

Clover Kids & Bremer County Youth are invited to participate in a variety of events. Come share your talents with us!

Clover Kid Eligibility:

Currently Enrolled Clover Kids in Bremer County 4-H in K-3rd Grade.

Bremer County Fair Book...

... Bremer County Fair Book is available online! For the complete Fair Book and Schedule go to our website www.extension.iastate.edu/bremer. It is important to check the Fair Schedule & Rules for your exhibit area. Schedule includes check in times, show dates & release time.

Clover Kids Competition...

Clover Kids receive clover ribbons for exhibiting. The State 4-H Program does not encourage competition at this age level. However, the youth are given the opportunity to participate, learn about different project areas and have fun exhibiting at the fair in various activities. Clover Kids can show 2 animal projects and 2 non-livestock projects. The Youth Committee has given ice cream coupons for all clover kids.

Clover Kids Livestock Entries...

Clover Kid livestock entries include: Bucket Bottle Calves, Bottle Lambs/Goat, Dog, Poultry, Rabbit, & Pet. Entries are judged in a share and tell manner. Clover Kids do not have to participate in FSQA. A Livestock ID is due in <https://ia.4honline.com/> by May 15th and your fair entry is due June 15th in <https://bremer.fairentry.com/>. You may ID more than one animal however; you may only show one in each species.

Clover Kid Non-Livestock Entries

ONLY Currently Enrolled Clover Kids are eligible to exhibit Non-Livestock Entries. You will need to enter your static (non-livestock) projects online at <https://bremer.fairentry.com/>. This Year THERE IS a pre-fair entry required by July 15th. No fees are required for Clover Kids. Exhibitors need to bring their projects Entry table on Sunday, July 24th during their club assigned times. Clover Kids have their own judges. The judge will talk to you about your project especially about your goals, what you liked, what you learned, and what your future goals are. Once your projects are judged, you will pick up your clover ribbon at the ribbon table and turn in your scan card. Your exhibits will be displayed in the Club Booth. You will pick up your exhibit on Sunday, July 31st between 7 & 9 am.

Other Clover Kid Opportunities...

For Currently Enrolled Clover Kids. Clover kids are also welcome to participate in Fashion Show and Communications (Share the Fun, Working Exhibits & Presentations). Fashion Show and Communications entries are due on June 15th. We look forward to seeing you at the Fair! We hope you will share your talents with us. If you have any questions, please call the Extension Office, 319-882-4275.
