

DOROTHY KLINDT MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

2017-2018

The Dorothy Klindt Memorial Scholarship will be awarded to an entering freshmen at Iowa State University who is enrolled in the College of Human Sciences. The recipient of this scholarship shall be the individual who best meets the required qualifications, shows a strong work ethic, and a desire to achieve his or her full potential. Financial need is not a criterion.

This scholarship was created in 1990 by Dorothy Klindt's husband and daughters as a permanent remembrance of her life and work. Mrs. Klindt, who died in 1989, was loved and admired by family, friends and the community.

Recipients must meet the following requirements:

- 1) Recipients must live in Cedar, Clinton, Muscatine or Scott County, Iowa, with first preference to female students from rural areas in Scott County
- 2) Above average academic work, demonstrated leadership and involvement in community, school, professional organizations and/or work activities (Evidence of this may include holding office, serving on a committee, and/or receiving honors and awards)
- 3) Complete the FinAidScholar application by December 1st

The amount of this award is $1,000 and is renewable for three additional years provided the student fulfills the scholarship requirements.
