No Poultry Exhibits

All 2015 live bird exhibits cancelled in Iowa due to Avian Influenza (Bird Flu)

→ Iowa Department of Agriculture and Land Stewardship cancelled the events to minimize risk of spreading the virus.

→ This measure is the best for:
  • Reducing the spread of the virus
  • Protecting exhibitor’s birds
  • Protecting Iowa’s poultry industry

Did you know that Iowa is...

• The nation’s leading egg producer. 1 in 5 eggs in the U.S. is from Iowa!
• One of the top states (#9) in the nation for turkey production!
