Avian Influenza and People

FACTS:

→ It is safe to eat properly cooked and prepared poultry meat and eggs.

→ No people have been infected with the Avian Influenza virus currently circulating in Iowa.

→ As a precaution, people working with infected birds should use personal protective equipment.