About the Conference

The 3-State Beef Conference is designed to provide beef cattle producers in Iowa, Missouri, and Nebraska an update on current cow-calf and stocker topics. The conference provides a forum of specialists from Iowa State University and the University of Nebraska.

The January 12, 2016, conference will be held in three states:

January 12  Creston, Iowa
January 13  Albany, Missouri
January 14  Beatrice, Nebraska

www.extension.iastate.edu/feci/3StBeef provides additional resources on the topics and information about the sites.

Conference Agenda

5:30 p.m. Registrations

6:00 p.m. The Veterinary Feed Directive (VFD): What You Need to Know as a Producer or Feed Supplier
  Craig Payne, DVM, Veterinary Medical Extension, University of Missouri

6:45 p.m. Dinner

7:15 p.m. Cover Crops: Establishment, Forage Yield, Forage Quality, Calf Performance
  Dr. Mary E. Drewnoski, Extension Beef Systems Specialist, University of Nebraska

8:00 p.m. Converting Row Crop Ground to Pasture: the Process, the Cost, and What is the Best Land Use of Your Farm?
  Joe Sellers, Extension Beef Specialist, Iowa State University

Registration Form

Name: _________________________________
Daytime phone: ____________________
Address: _________________________________
Cell phone: ___________________
City, State, Zip: __________________________________________________________
E-mail _______

Clip and return by January 8 with the $25 registration fee to:
ISU Extension - Page County 311 East Washington Street, Clarinda, IA 51632
You can also call 877-596-7243 or email teggers@iastate.edu with the registration information.
Why Pre-register?

Pre-registration is required by Friday, January 8, 2016. Calling, e-mailing, or sending your reservation via US Mail assures the program will be held.

The registration fee is $25 per person. It includes a meal and a copy of the conference proceedings.

$25 Registration Fee
Pre-registration required by January 8