

GLOBAL CLOVER

December 2020 Edition

Name of Country: Mongolia

The 4-H Connection:

- 4-H in Mongolia started in 2009 in collaboration with Wyoming 4-H.
- The purpose of the program is to help youth acquire knowledge, develop life skills, and form attitudes that will enable them to become self-directing, productive members of society.
- Learning English is a big goal of Mongolian 4-H; they offer English courses, book clubs, and friendly book competitions!
- The Mongolian 4-H pledge is:

My mind is wide open
My heart is sincere
My helping hand is generous in helping others
My healthy body is doing its best

Our group, our society,
I swear for the sake of our country, our motherland

Quick Facts:

Location

North-central Asia

Capital

Ulaanbaatar

Population

3.266 million

Official Language

Khalkha Mongolian

Fun Facts!

Mongolia is heavily nomadic, around 30% of Mongolians are classified nomads!

Mongolia is known for their grazing livestock. About three-fourths of their area is pastureland!

Connection: 1... 2... 3... Read!

Mongolia 4-H offers many reading programs to help their members learn English! Reading is one of the best ways to learn a new language and have fun!

In your 4-H club, start a book club! Pick an interesting book and invite your club to join! If you want to challenge yourself, pick a book written by a foreign author, or a story set in another country!

Sources:

<https://www.britannica.com/place/Mongolia/The-northern-intermontane-basins>

<https://www.facebook.com/Mongolia4H/>

https://prezi.com/sqmhad_oufg/mongolian-4-h-

Iowa State University Extension and Outreach does not discriminate on the basis of age, disability, ethnicity, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, national origin, pregnancy, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, or status as a U.S. veteran. Direct inquiries to the Diversity Officer, 515-294-1482, extdiversity@iastate.edu.

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY
Extension and Outreach