CODE OF RESPONSIBILITIES

You make Iowa 4-H Youth Conference and Animal Science Round-Up a success. The following code outlines your responsibilities.

I will...

♦ follow the policies, regulations, and requests of my host, Iowa State University, and the Ames Community.

  If ISU security must enforce policies, their penalty procedure supersedes those set by conference.
  ● leave room, lounges, halls, and dining areas clean and neat.
  ● cause no damage to university or private property.
  ● not consume or possess alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, or illegal drugs.
  ● not possess any fireworks or explosives.
  ● not remove screens from residence hall windows. If removed, I will be billed at least a $50 fine (no warnings).

♦ attend all sessions and activities on time and in appropriate attire - no inappropriate imprints, bare midriffs, low-cut tops, no backless shirts, cut-offs, short shorts, or muscle shirts at any time. Spaghetti straps are acceptable as long as undergarment is not seen. Dresses and shorts should be long enough so everything is covered. Clothing is under the discretion of State Council members, Iowa 4-H Youth conference staff and chaperones. But if you have to ask if it’s appropriate, then it probably isn’t. You may be excused from the conference if you do not obey these guidelines.

♦ treat other delegates, state council members, chaperones, session leaders, and ISU staff with respect and attention. There will be ZERO TOLERANCE for bullying and harassment of others.

♦ enter only residence halls used by conference delegates.

♦ respect members of the opposite sex by not going onto their residence hall floors.

♦ only be in the one designated lounge area of a dorm of the opposite sex during conference.

♦ wear my name tag around my neck and meal band on wrist at all times (including dances).

♦ wear no hats indoors.

♦ stay on my dorm floor between lights out and 5:30 a.m.

♦ not order delivery food to arrive after 12 midnight.

♦ observe pedestrian traffic regulations; stay on sidewalks and walkways and cooperate with chaperones working to ensure safe crossing of street.

♦ not leave campus unless required by a scheduled conference activity.

♦ not drive a motorized vehicle during conference.

♦ assume legal and financial responsibility for traffic/parking tickets received.

♦ turn off or put my cell phone on SILENT during conference activities (or they may be taken).

♦ represent myself, my county, and state in a positive manner and be appropriate during sessions and workshops.

By not following the above Code, I will...

♦ be given a warning depending on the severity of the offense or unless offense is immediately handled by ISU security or residence staff.

♦ be sent back to change.

♦ be restricted to Conference Headquarters during a recreation or dance event.

♦ have my parents contacted and possibly be sent home depending on the severity of the offense.

The discipline review committee will be composed of members of the State 4-H Council, ISU Extension and Outreach 4-H Youth Development staff, and chaperones. This committee has the responsibility for the safety of the total conference delegation. They have the right and responsibility to contact parents of delegates when appropriate. All Iowa laws that affect minors will be enforced, and delegates may be sent home if the committee determines it to be the most appropriate action.

Thank you for making this Conference a success.

PROGRAM EVALUATION AND RESEARCH PERMISSION

The Iowa State University Extension and Outreach 4-H Program annually assesses the extent to which youths’ engagement in 4-H learning experiences impact their lives. The overall purpose of Iowa 4-H’s program evaluation and research efforts is to inform and improve 4-H educational learning experiences with all Iowa youth.

Throughout the 4-H programming year, youth enrolled in 4-H learning experiences may be asked via a self-assessment tool to share perceptions of changes in their knowledge and actions/practices related to engagement in healthy living, STEM, citizenship and leadership, and/or communication and the arts learning experiences. The youth self-assessments do not ask for youths’ names. Youths’ self-assessment responses are kept confidential and results are reported in aggregate.

The Iowa 4-H Program is also working collaboratively with the Iowa Department of Education to determine if there are differences in academic variables such as, but not limited to, grades, test scores, school attendance, and course enrollment of youth who are engaged in 4-H learning experiences compared to youth who are not engaged in 4-H learning opportunities. Additionally, demographic data, such as, but not limited to youths’ ethnicity, race, and gender will also be reviewed to better understand if youth engagement in 4-H learning experiences helps to close achievement gaps as outlined by the Iowa Department of Education. The Iowa 4-H Program will work closely with the Iowa Department of Education to ensure that any data released is not personally identifiable and that any data received, analyzed, or preserved is in strict compliance with the requirements within the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and Iowa State University’s Human Subject Policies.

You are free to decide not to have your child participate in any Iowa 4-H program evaluation or research project, or to withdraw your child at any time, without adversely affecting your child’s Iowa 4-H participation. If you decide to withdraw your child from an Iowa 4-H program evaluation or research project, please contact Leslie Stonehocker, 4-H Data Manager, at ljstone@iastate.edu. Your decision will not result in any loss or benefits to which your child is otherwise entitled.

YOU ARE VOLUNTARILY MAKING A DECISION WHETHER OR NOT TO ALLOW YOUR CHILD TO PARTICIPATE IN 4-H PROGRAM EVALUATION AND RESEARCH EFFORTS. YOUR SIGNATURE CERTIFIES YOU HAVE DECIDED TO ALLOW YOUR CHILD TO PARTICIPATE HAVING READ AND UNDERSTOOD THE INFORMATION PRESENTED.
