State 4-H Awardrobe Clothing Event
Suggested Interview Questions

To assist judges in encouraging State 4-H Awardrobe Clothing Event participants to talk candidly about their outfits, example questions are provided below to maintain a conversational dialogue between judge and participant. Some questions work better for a given category (Fashion Revue, Clothing Selection, or The $15 Challenge), while other questions are applicable to all three categories. Judges are also encouraged to use their own questions making sure the questions are appropriate for the age and experience level of the State 4-H Awardrobe Clothing Event participant.

CLOTHING SELECTION, FASHION REVUE, OR THE $15 CHALLENGE QUESTIONS

- What care will all the pieces of this outfit require?

Consumer Decisions ★
- When you went shopping for this, did you have an idea of what you were looking for and a price range? Did you stay within what you were looking for and price considerations or did the outfit "jump off the hanger at you"?
- As you selected the pieces for this outfit, what did you learn about price and quality?
- How does this outfit fit your clothing needs? (Relate to lifestyle i.e. what do you wear to school, church, special events etc.)
- How did this purchase fit into your family budget?
- Did you have a budget?
- What was your budget on this project?
- What were considerations besides budget?
- What information did you get from the hang tag?
- Do you usually check the hang tag and care tag before purchasing an article of clothing? If so, are there certain characteristics that cause you not to purchase the article of clothing? (Such as hand wash, dry clean, high percentage of a certain fiber such as wool, etc.)
- Explain how to care for this outfit (storage and cleaning).
- What time of year do you think you spend the most on clothes and why?
- How did you calculate the Cost Per Wearing (CPW)?
- Where did you purchase your garment(s)?
Outfit’s Suitability for Individual
(Recommend having available a copy of 4H 313 “Unraveling the Mystery of Design Elements and Principles in Clothing”)

- Why did you select the particular color(s) or fabric(s)?
- Explain the design elements and principles evident in this outfit.
- What does this outfit say about your personality?

- Describe what you think makes your outfit unique.
- Explain how and why the style of this outfit is appropriate for your figure.
- How do you feel about the way your outfit fits you? (Did you make any alterations in hem length, sleeve length etc?)
- If you could improve the fit of this outfit in any way, what would you improve?
- Describe any challenges you faced as you selected this outfit/accessories and how you met them.
- Explain what you considered when choosing your accessories.
- Which accessories did you already own and which did you purchase for this outfit?

SPECIFIC CLOTHING SELECTION QUESTIONS

- Did your purchase this outfit to wear to a specific event? If so, what was it?
- Who was with you when you bought this outfit? In what ways did this person influence your decision to buy it?
- To what other events will you be able to wear it?
- What do you have in your wardrobe that you will be able to combine it with?
- Did it “jump off the hanger” for you, or did it look better on you than the hanger?
- What things did you consider before purchasing it?
- How will you care for it?

SPECIFIC THE $15 CHALLENGE QUESTIONS

- Tell me the story of your outfit.
- Where did you purchase or find it?
- What was the cost of the outfit?
- Had you previously purchased clothing at resale/consignment stores/Goodwill/Salvation Army/garage sales?
- Did you go to several places/sales or did you find it right away?
- Did you have to hunt for your outfit or did it “jump off the hanger” at you?
- Where did/will you wear it?
- How will you care for it?
- How did this experience change your impression of shopping at resale/consignment stores/Goodwill/Salvation Army/garage sales?
- Will you consider shopping for second hand clothing in the future? Why or why not?
- Would you consider selling your unused clothing at a garage sale or consignment store?
SPECIFIC FASHION REVUE QUESTIONS
(Recommend having available a copy of 4H 316 “Let’s Sew”)
- What sewing experience have you had?
- How do you think your constructed garment compares with ready to wear?
  (Answers may go back to the three criteria listed above.)
- What was a new technique for you in sewing this garment?
- Where did you purchase the pattern?
- Where did you purchase the fabric?
- What information did you get from the fabric’s bolt end?
- What did you do to the fabric prior to cutting it out?
- What alterations did you have to make to the pattern? (Some alterations are advanced level!)
- Did it turn out how you thought it would? If not, how is it different?
- Which technique did you find the easiest?
- Which technique did you find the most difficult?
- Will you make the pattern again?
- Will you make changes next time? If so, what?
- What is your next sewing project? Or will you sew again?
- How will you care for this garment?

★While the 4-H’er needs to calculate the cost of the entire garment, it is NOT appropriate for a judge to say the garment is too expensive - with the exception of The $15 Challenge category.
