Every year, thousands of 4-H’ers from every county in Iowa participate in the Iowa State Fair. From raising animals to taking photos, growing fruits and vegetables to working with wood and metal, 4-H’ers display a vast range of skills, passion and interests in their projects and exhibits.