Fall Field Day
September 15, 2004
Tour Begins at 1:00 p.m.

Featuring ISU Plant Pathologists
Alison Robertson, Greg Tylka & X.B. Yang on:

Corn & Soybean Disease Problems

Emphasizing Soybean Sudden Death Syndrome, White Mold, Gray Leaf Spot, & the Outlook for Asian Soybean Rust

Other Tour Stops:

♦ Crop Season Review -- Kevin Van Dee, Farm Superintendent

♦ Using Double Cropped Field Peas after Winter Wheat for Swine Rations -- Jim Fawcett, Extension Crop Specialist & Tom Miller, Extension Swine Specialist

♦ Soybean Studies on Plant Population & Soybean Cyst Nematode
  -- Palle Pedersen, Extension Soybean Specialist

Directions to the farm: Go 1 ¾ miles south of Crawfordsville on Hwy 218, then 2 miles east on G-62, then ¾ mile north. Watch for signs.

2.5 hours of credit available for Certified Crop Advisors ($25 fee for credit)

Also come for a

No-till Manure Injection Demonstration at 10:30 a.m. before the tour.

Lunch available at the SE Research Farm from Country Cookin