MONTHLY INSIGHT

Happy Summer! I hope everyone had a great school year and you are looking forward to an exciting summer. Fair time is a busy and exciting time for 4-H families. Remember, the focus of your fair experience should be on your learning and growth. The knowledge and skills gained are far more important than the results of a competitive event, ribbons awarded, and the animal or project exhibited. You are all winners because of the new knowledge and skills you have gained! The June Newsletter is full of important information. I strongly encourage families who received the newsletter electronically to print it and have it available at home so you do not miss out on any summer opportunities and deadlines! With 4-H Spirit, Morgan Bjerke

SMILES AND THANK YOU'S!

- Thank you to Matt Howe, Mallory Howe, Brad Berns, Erin Berns, Brock Berns, Brenna Berns, Brigid Berns, Nick Dahlstrom, Tegan Dahlstrom and 4-H families for your help with the Sheep/Meat Goat Weigh-In.
- Smiles to the 4-H'ers, parents, and leaders that met the May 15 deadline.
- Smiles to the exhibitors who have completed their YQCA testing or training!
- Thank you to the leaders who have finished their required leaders training.
- Thank you to 4-H County Council, Cherry Valley Chums, Elon PMC, Bear Creek Kids, West Ridge Riders, Ludlow Future Farmers, River Valley Panthers and Allamakee County Master Gardeners for contributing to the Club Challenge Fair Improvement Project.
- Good luck to 4-H'ers who will be attending camp at Pine Bluff this summer or going on the Intermediate Trip.
- A huge thank you to the 4-H project club volunteers; Dog Club, and Horse Club.
- Good luck to all of our graduating seniors.
- Smiles to all the County Council members who completed their Leadership Projects!
- Smiles and congratulations to our new 2019-20 County Council members.

JULY NEWSLETTER

Please keep an eye out the beginning of July for a July 4-H Newsletter! This edition will be specific to fair updates and preparations!

EXPRESSIONS DAY: COMMUNICATION/CLOTHING JUDGING

Please mark your calendars for Sunday, June 23, 2019 for Expressions Day! Expressions Day is our Communication and Clothing Judging Day! Start thinking of how you and/or your whole club can participate. From $15 Challenge to Share-The-Fun there is a category for everyone (including Clover Kids) to participate! This year Expressions Day will be held at the Allamakee County Extension Office, Waukon.

HORTICULTURE CHALLENGE

Class 711L Horticulture-Home Judged Garden -- This project may consist of a vegetable and/or flower garden. The exhibitor will prepare a folder containing photos, weed & pest control, knowledge of your gardening project and an explanation about the garden project. The fair folder will be used as the judging criteria for ribbon placing. Home garden judging will take place the week prior to fair. Entry forms are available at the Extension Office, forms are due June 15. Entry form can be found at www.extension.iastate.edu/allamakee/page/member-info or at the Extension Office. Tentative judging is scheduled for Monday, July 8.

CITIZENSHIP AWARDS

The 4117 Auxiliary would like you to take pride in our country and is offering awards to projects exhibited at the fair around the theme of 'Honor Our Veterans.' Projects will get judged while being on display after conference judging. 1st Place receives $30, 2nd $20 and 3rd $10. Awards will be presented at the Youth Showcase on Tuesday evening of fair.

CONGRATULATIONS: Graduating Clover Kids!

*The Clover Kid Graduation Ceremony will be held at the Fairgrounds Pavilion on Tuesday, July 16 at 6:30 PM
Be looking for these energetic youth to be part of your 4-H Club soon!*

CLUB FAIR INFORMATION

2019 FAIR THEME & DATES

Preparations have started for the 2019 Allamakee County Fair! You can also start preparations on booth decorating ideas. The 2019 theme is: "A Universe of Possibilities" The 2019 Allamakee County Fair has been scheduled for July 17-21, 2019.

CLUB POSTERS

This year's club poster theme is A Universe Of Possibilities. Your poster will be displayed in the 4-H Building at the fair. Included on your 14"x22" poster board should be your club photo, members' names, club activities, and club name. The posters are a great marketing tool and your chance to tell Allamakee County about 4-H and to highlight your club! Please note, the club posters are an addition to the club booth decorating project. Posters are due Tuesday, July 16 to the 4-H Building.

COMMUNITY SERVICE DRIVE

The 4-H County Council is sponsoring a School Supplies Drive to benefit the Allamakee County Relief Office. The Council is encouraging all 4-H clubs and the community to participate by purchasing these items. Monetary donations will be accepted during the fair as well. We will have a special community service booth in the 4-H Exhibit Building to display the donations during the fair. Donations can be made anytime throughout the fair, July 17-21.

PRE/POST FAIR CLEAN UP

The clubs listed below have clean-up duty this year at the fair.

Pre-Fair Clean-up, Saturday, July 13, 9:00 AM

- ◆ River Valley Panthers, West Ridge Riders

Post-Fair Clean-up, Monday, July 22, 9:00 AM

- ◆ Clover Chasers, Ludlow Future Farmers
- ◆ Clubs will be divided into crews. An adult or senior 4-H member will be appointed by the club as crew leader. Crews will clean and help set-up the 4-H Building, barns, Pavilion, or other general cleaning duties as needed. Please wear clothes and shoes you can get dirty. Also, don't forget to bring rakes, brooms, gloves, rags, and buckets.

APPRECIATION SUPPER BARS

The Youth Development Committee is asking three clubs, Elon PMC, 4-H Toppers, and Mississippi Mad Scientists to donate 6 pans per club to the Appreciation Supper on Sunday, July 22. More bars are always welcome, if your club would also like to contribute. Bars must be dropped off at the Appreciation Supper Building (next to Fair Office) by 1:00 PM on Sunday.

RICE KRISPIE BARS

REMINDER—Please help us continue to make the 4-H Foodstand a success. Each club is asked to provide 2 dozen 4"x4" Rice Krispie Treats (without chocolate frosting). Rice Krispie Treats should be in individual wrapped fold over sandwich bags (no Ziploc). Clubs working the Saturday or Sunday shifts need to bring your bars to the Food Stand before 11:00 AM on Saturday.

PROJECT SHOWCASE

July 10, 12-4:00 PM—Nervous about your first Conference Judging Experience or want to enhance your paperwork? Join us for an afternoon full of paper work orientation, mock judges interviews that will provide you many tips and tricks to enhance your exhibits before Conference Judging. Please come prepared with any exhibits and paperwork you would like last minute advice or help with. Have questions about your paperwork or not sure what paperwork you need? This is a great opportunity for YOU! All 4-H'ers (including Clover Kids) are welcome to attend—new and old!

OPPORTUNITIES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS: FAIR REMINDERS

Friendly Reminders: ALL fans for cattle in the cattle barns (Dairy, Beef, Sweeney) to blow North. Meaning no butt fans or aisle fans. You may have to redesign your fan racks and exhibit area. If we all work together to overcome the electrical issues it will make for a safer and more pleasurable experience.

Stalls are reserved for livestock, feed and livestock supplies. Please only reserve the number of stalls your livestock will be occupying during the fair for the June 15 Entry Deadline.

Swine Exhibitors—You must clean your swine pens out on Sunday after the auction. Bedding may be piled in the arena after the pigs have been hauled out. Please remember to return on Monday morning to power wash and tear down these pens. Many hands make light work!

YOUTH QUALITY ASSURANCE CERTIFICATION (YQCA)

All 4-H members wanting to exhibit any beef, dairy, sheep, swine, goat, poultry, or rabbits MUST be YQCA (formerly known as FSQA) certified to be eligible to show at the 2019 Allamakee County Fair and/or the Iowa State Fair. Junior members (Grades 4-6) who missed the face to face training, may take the test online. Intermediate & Senior members (Grades 7-12) have the option to test online for certification at their age level. An information letter with instructions on testing was sent out to families, please refer to that letter with your certification status. Questions? Contact Morgan.

POULTRY PULLORUM TESTING UPDATE

- Iowa Department of Ag and Land Stewardship (IDALS) have granted a waiver until August 31, 2019 for all poultry exhibitions due to antigen shortage
- No Pullorum-Typhoid testing will be needed for county fairs or the State Fair
- The requirement for all birds to originate from PT-free flocks is also lifted until August 31, 2019

WELCOME NEW COUNTY COUNCIL MEMBERS

The Allamakee County 4-H Program welcomes five new members for the 2019-20 4-H year; Tucker Jackson, Claire Opperman, and Emma Palmer of Waukon Kiersten Gibbs of Waterville, Alaina Gebel of Lansing, and Milan Byrnes of Dorchester. Returning members for the 2019-2020 4-H year include; Shelby Wyninger, Diana Davison, Faith Palmer, Logan Kucera, Madalyn Ellingson, Soraya Reyes, Allie Bieber, Jenn Kloke, Tessa Rubendall, Morgan Stortz, Madelyn Moser, and Madalyn Palmer of Waukon, Kaylee Gibbs of Waterville, Robert White of Postville, and Shara Cota of Harpers Ferry. All new and returning members participated in a group interview on Sunday, May 5 with the help of graduation County Council members Brandon Bieber, Taya Duehr, Andrew Mellick, Blake Stortz, and Caleb Opfer.

RABBIT WORKSHOP

Fair is right around the corner and we'd like to help you prepare at our HANDS on rabbit workshop! Join Shara Kathryn, Jessica O'Connor and Soraya Reyes to learn more about showmanship, grooming, classes and more.

When: Saturday, June 8 at 3:00 PM

Where: Fair Grounds In Rabbit and Poultry Barn

If your interested in attending, please contact Soraya Reyes, Shara Cota or the Extension Office!

PHOTOGRAPHY WORKSHOP

Diana Davison with Sara Palas Photography, Postville will be hosting a photography workshop on Friday, June 14 from 10:00 AM—3:00 PM at the Allamakee County Extension Office. A $5 fee for the workshop will be collected to cover the supplies for the day. 4-H'ers will learn the basics of photography, how to operate a camera in manual mode (bring your own camera). Sara will be supplying lunch. To register call 563-568-6345.

LIVESTOCK REMINDERS

4-H/FFA HORSE PROJECT WORKOUTS

Horse workouts at the fairgrounds in Waukon will be held on Wednesdays, from 10:00 AM—12:00 PM, June 5- July 10 and Thursdays, from 6:30 PM – 9:00 PM June 6– July 11. We will also hold a Saturday workout on June 29 10:00 AM—12:00 PM. Please wear your 4-H shirt June 6 for a group photo. This photo will be used to send as a Thank You for any contributions or volunteers that help us throughout the year. Dress code will apply. Use the airport driveway. If there has been a great deal of rain, or inclement weather, it is your responsibility to learn of cancellations the day of the workout by calling the Extension Office Wednesdays, after 8:30 AM at (563) 568-6345 Thursdays, after 2:00 PM at (563) 568-6345.

REMINDER—“Exhibitors must participate and bring his/her animals to one scheduled county horse workout in the spring to be eligible to show at the Allamakee County Fair.” If you are signed up to give a presentation please be ready to start at the beginning of our workout. Helmets will be provided for those needing one.*

LIVESTOCK AUCTION CHECKS & AUCTION PHOTOS

The 4-H Youth Development Committee would like to remind youth of the importance of thanking livestock auction buyers for their generous support by writing a thank you note. We strongly encourage every livestock auction participant to write a thank you note (addressed and stamped) to his/her buyer(s) prior to receiving their auction check in order to guarantee every buyer receives a thank you note. Checks will be available for pick up Tuesday, July 23 after 1:00 PM at the Extension Office. In addition, we would like a photo of you with your livestock auction animal to present to your buyer after the auction. Photos are due June 15. If photos are not received by due date, you will not have a photo thank you to give to your auction buyer. The photo thank you does not take the place of the hand-written thank you.

FAIR ENTRY FORMS

Once you have identified your livestock in 4-H Online, Lana will be sifting through the data and getting your entry forms ready. We will be mailing the entry forms to families to review and return to the Extension Office by June 15.

The entry forms will list all the animals you have identified. All you have to do is check to see if the animal is in the correct class, add any classes not listed, and pay your stall or exhibitor fee. The deadline for the entry form to be returned to the Extension Office is SATURDAY, June 15. Office hours are Monday—Friday 8:00 AM—4:30 PM.

Stalls are reserved for livestock, feed and livestock supplies. Please only reserve the number of stalls your livestock will be occupying during the fair for the June 15 Entry Deadline.

PLEASE read the Letter accompanying your Entry Form for more information.

Allamakee County Fair Entry Form Monday, February 20, 2012

FAIR REMINDERS

2019 FAIR BOOK UPDATES

The 2019 Allamakee County Fairbook have been printed. Here is a BRIEF list of new classes, show orders, and rule changes, please see your 2019 Fairbook updates for the COMPLETE rules. The fairbook may also be found online at <https://www.extension.iastate.edu/allamakee/page/member-info>

General Rules for Livestock Exhibits

HEALTH (Page 14) 33 A - Health related decisions will be addressed by the Fair Veterinarian.

LIVESTOCK AUCTION 6. Check off fees are determined per commodity at time of cosigning livestock for the auction.

SWINE—(Page 15) 7. Classes in the department will be split by the superintendents using weights obtained at the fair weigh-in, with no more than 13 exhibits in a group.

MEAT GOAT – CLASS B- MEAT GOAT (Page 16-17) – defined the Meat Goat and Market Dairy Goat classes. Added to the rules information about the classes, for the complete descriptions see the fairbook. All entries will be shown together regardless of breed or registry status. Each exhibitor may weigh-in six animals. This total of 6 head can be made up of all dairy goats, all meat goats, or a combination of dairy and meat goats. ROG will be awarded to the top three Meat Goats and the top three Market Dairy Goats. Grooming: Market animals will be presented for judging in a clean and show-shaved condition (shaving as per recommendations). Dairy Goats clipping is optional. Horns: have horns disbudded, dehorned or tipped blunt enough to not be a safety hazard on all market wethers. Classes and class weights will be split into market meat goat and market dairy goat classes per Meat Goat Superintendents discretion after the Fair entry weigh-in. The Meat Goat Show Order is updated.

BEEF – MARKET BEEF (Page 17) – 3. A minimum weight of 1,000 pounds has been established for market beef. Smaller dairy breeds a minimum weight of 950 pounds has been established. Animals under minimum weight will not qualify for blue ribbon placing and cannot be sold at the auction.

RABBITS – (Page 18) The number of lots of rabbits has been updated and clarified in the fairbook.

DOG – (Page 21-22) 7. 4-H dog classes, seminars, workshops, and dog show

HORSE & PONY – (Page 22-24) Updated showmanship and horsemanship age divisions. Added a section about the appearance of the horse. Under Exhibitor conduct 22 a. was added. The class age divisions have been revised, please see the class lists for your age group. A Lot for the Intermediates have been added to the game classes.

HERDSMANSHIP CONTEST

The Youth Development Committee will be hosting a Herdsmanship Contest at the fair again this year. The clubs will be scored each day. The club with the highest score will be awarded the winner during the Livestock Auction on Sunday. Each club member exhibiting livestock will receive an extra two Clover Bucks to be redeemed at the Clover Store during the annual 4-H Soup Supper & Awards Program in the fall. There will also be a daily certificate given to the best barn that day. Guidelines include:

- Cleanliness— alleys, stalls, pens and/or cages – clean bedding for animals; bedding is confined in the stall/pen/cage and not the walkway; area free of trash; manure removed frequently.
- Arrangement of Exhibit - attractive, neat, equipment stored. Walkways cleaned, raked, and/or swept. Appearance of Animals - animals clean, brushed, tied or penned properly.
- Safety – Cages and stall doors properly secured; walkways clear of any obstructions, such as pitchforks and brooms; fans properly secured.
- Overall - Club members should be courteous, polite, and observe all rules and regulations set by the Fair Board, staff and volunteers. Active participation in cleaning, maintenance and caring for the livestock should be observed at all times.

LEADER REMINDERS

LEADERS: UPCOMING DEADLINES AND REMINDERS

- ◆ July Newsletter—Please note that we will be sending out a separate July Newsletter specific to Fair Reminders.
- ◆ If you are planning a club activity that is NOT documented in your club program, please remember to contact the Extension Office about insurance coverage for special activities. Liability activity forms can be found on our website www.extension.iastate.edu/allamakee/4h under the Leader heading.
- ◆ Please contact the Extension Office if you have any youth that are not meeting club guidelines so we are aware of the situations.
