The 2022 Appanoose County Fair is dedicated to Craig Sebolt in appreciation for the many years of dedication to the Appanoose County Fair.

You might say the fair is in Craig Sebolt's blood. With a long line of family history involvement in the Appanoose County Fair from his great granddad helping build the barns to his dad serving many years as Fair Board President, Craig is continuing the tradition of serving to mentor and educate youth about agriculture. He has held a host of leadership positions. For 40 years he has been a leader of the Franklin Farmhands 4-H Club and worked alongside Ronald Turk. He is on the Appanoose County Extension Council, held positions on the Appanoose County Fair Board for 30 plus years, and is President of the FFA Alumni at Seymour Community School.

Appanoose County has always been his home and agriculture has always been and continues to be at the forefront of Craig's life. As a youngster he was a member of the Franklin Farmhands 4-H Club and earned several awards at the county and state level with his primary area of expertise being in beef. He was also active in FFA earning the State FFA Degree. Upon graduation he began working at Fowler Elevator in Seymour where he became rather knowledgeable on feed and appropriate mixes to get desired results. Making his home just miles down the road from the family farm was convenient, allowing him to continue to help with chores and field work all while holding a job in town and trying to pass on his knowledge to his own children. As a leader Craig emphasizes the importance of parliamentary procedure, encourages farm safety, and works to improve showmanship by inviting members with livestock to practice and review techniques to be better prepared for show day at the county fair. He enjoys sharing his knowledge and watching youth grow and succeed. Determination, hard work, and respect are all things he lives by and stresses to those he works with. Craig continues to be involved in the feed business now working for Centerville Produce and is passing his knowledge on to his grandchildren as they are growing old enough to show in 4-H now too.

Craig, along with his wife Debbie, continue another tradition by instilling the importance of family and supporting one another to their own children, DeAnna and Gwynn. While Craig may not go away on extravagant vacations or have a sophisticated palate, he knows what's truly important in life and that's most often the simple things. Being there for family and friends in fun times celebrating milestones and tough times just to listen or cry, helping a neighbor, watching a dance recital, or cheering at a ballgame are all other things he could be found doing over the years to show his love and support.
