4-H is a community of young people across America who are learning leadership, citizenship, and life skills.

Ways to give to Benton County 4-H and/or the Benton County 4-H Foundation

Direct Gifts

These gifts may be sent directly to the Benton County Extension Office.

Memorial

Gifts given in memory of family or friends.

Tributes

Gifts given in honor of a special occasion or appreciation, to recognize a living member, friend or even an influential 4-H leader.

Appreciated Stock or Real Estate

This gift may offer significant tax advantage for the donor. You pay no capital gains tax on the increase in value, but your tax deduction is based on the present fair market value. The advantage is that the donor can take capital loss in value and also receives a tax deduction on the present value of the gift.

4-H Foundation

Endowment Fund Mission:

To provide financial support for Benton County 4-H members and programs at the county, state and national levels. To promote and encourage growth in our youth through club and community activities by providing life skill development.

The 4-H Pledge:

I pledge

My Head to clearer thinking

My Heart to greater loyalty

My Hands to larger service

My Health to better living

For my club, my community, my country, and my world.

"4-H has given me the qualities of leadership to help me achieve great success in my life." Austin Siela 4-H Alumni

Being in 4-H was probably the best choice I could have made growing up. I learned great communication, leadership, and organizational skills that I have carried with me into college and all other areas of my life.

-Sara Stephenson, 4-H Alumni
