Civil Rights Acknowledgement: As a volunteer, I understand that Iowa 4-H Youth Development, as a unit of Iowa State University Extension and Outreach and a program of the United States Department of Agriculture, must comply with all Federal and State Civil Rights Laws. These include: Ensuring the Iowa 4-H Youth Development Program is made available to all children and youth appropriate for the specific club, group, project, or learning community in which I am affiliated (clover kids clubs serve kindergarten through third grade youth and community clubs serve youth grades 4-12). "Available" means the ability to participate regardless of age, disability, ethnicity, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, national origin, pregnancy, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, socio-economic status, status as a U.S. veteran, or other protected classes. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Additional information regarding non-discrimination and accommodation policies may be found at <https://www.extension.iastate.edu/diversity/ext>. Recruiting members may occur through personal or mailed invitations, mass media (newspaper, radio, TV), referrals from the Extension office, inquiries from prospective members, school visitations, posters and displays, social media, or other methods.
