

The Cedar Falls Lucky Hawks met on November 23 at 3:00 at Retrieving Freedom. The clubbers learned about training dogs for veterans and children with autism. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Leah and Joel VerDught, and the 4-H pledge was led by Easton and Allison Ravn. The roll call question was: What is your favorite animal. The secretary's minutes and treasurer's reports were given. Old business included a reminder of club programs that were emailed out. 4-H enrollment fees were online. Record Books were handed out after the meeting. New business included a reminder of the December meeting. Upcoming county events included the Awards Banquet, Pizza Ranch fundraiser, archery lessons at Hawkeye college, beef weigh at Hawkeye college, Black Hawk hokey game, and a Child Development workshop.

Signed,

Megan M.