On November 4th at 2:30 pm, the Cedar Falls Lucky Hawks met at Orchard Hill Church. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Megan Mason, and the 4-H pledge was led by Lydia Knight. Roll call was answer the question: What is your favorite fall activity? The secretary’s minutes were given, as well as the treasurer’s report. Old business was discussed, concerning the club program sheet, enrollment, dues, and T-shirt orders. New business was also discussed, such as the December meeting at Windhaven, The Cedar Valley STEM Festival on Nov. 7th at the Five Sullivan Brother’s Convention Center, the Woodworking Workshop on November 16th, the Awards Banquet at Electric Park on November 19th, and the Soy Wax Workshop on December 2nd. The motion to adjourn was made by Tyler Smith and Megan Mason. At the end of the meeting, the club cleaned the nurseries at Orchard Hill Church, as a thank you for letting them use the building.
