

The Cedar Falls Lucky Hawks met on October 12 at 3:00 pm at Orchard Hill Church Big House. The pledge of Allegiance was led by Rishika Shettigar, and the 4-H pledge was led by Maggie VerDught. Roll call was, “What are you looking forward to doing during this 4-H year?” The secretary’s minutes were read and approved. Old business included the report on record books, on which the club did a nice job. New business included the next meeting, which is November, and details will follow. Officers were elected. Enrollment fees are online, and county dues are $15. Important dates are on the 4-H website, which includes the Awards Banquet on November 24th at Electric park at 4:30 pm. Shanda Knight was introduced as a new leader. After the meeting was adjourned, members stuck around for treats and games.

Officers for the 2019-2020 4-H year:

President: Rachel Brokenshire

Vice President: Nathan Smith

Treasurer: Grace Brokenshire

Secretary: Maggie VerDught

Historian: Leah VerDught

Reporter: Megan Mason

Photographers: Lydia Knight, Naomi Strohm, Jonah and Markus Woolery

Recreation leaders: Allison Ravn, Naomi Sharkey

Signed,

Megan Mason