

The Cedar Falls Lucky Hawks met on January 11 at the Orchard Hill Big House. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Megan Mason, and the 4-H pledge was led by Naomi and Isaiah Sharkey. The roll call question was: What is your favorite winter sport or activity. The secretary's minutes were read and approved. The treasurer's report was also given. Old business included the announcement that we won the Gold Achievement Award from the Awards Banquet. The club voted on paying the county dues. The report on Windhaven report was given as well. The residence loved the performance. New business included the reminder of Family Fun night, which is at UNI on February 1 from 5-8. It is free for 4-H families. Information on the YQCA Training certification is available at the extension office website. 4-H snowshoeing and animal tracking is available at Hartman Reserve on February 8 from 11 to noon. The motion to adjourn was made by Tyler Smith and seconded by Lydia Knight.

Signed,

Megan M.
