Fashion Revue

Participant's model a garment exhibitor has constructed, hand-knitted, or crocheted during the current 4-H year. Undergarments and accessories may be made or selected by the entrant. At least one major piece must be constructed by the 4-Her. The 4-Her chosen to represent the county at the State Fair must be in the senior age range for 4-H (9-12th grade, just completed) and submit required forms.

1. Any member currently enrolled in the clothing project may enter the fashion revue program.
2. A 4-H member may participate in both the County Fashion Revue and Clothing Selection programs but is limited to one entry in each.
3. A garment entered in the Fashion Revue may be entered as a clothing exhibit at the fair. However, an outfit selected for State Fair Fashion Revue cannot be selected as a State Fair clothing exhibit.
4. No premium money is given, but ribbons are awarded to everyone who participates in the judging and Style Show. Honorable mention ribbons will be awarded to the most outstanding entries. To receive a ribbon, 4-Hers must participate in the Style Show in addition to the conference judging.
5. The purpose of this class is to encourage the construction of a personal garment or outfit.
6. Consideration is given to fit, color, style, suitability, quality of construction, stage presentation, and required care.
7. Youth participants will model a garment or outfit they constructed, hand-knitted, machine-knitted, or crocheted during the current 4-H year.
8. A garment or outfit consists of one to three pieces such as, but not limited to, party clothes, tailored suits, vest, slacks, shirt, skirt, active sportswear, and/or coats.
9. Blouses, shirts, and sweaters are usually considered garments. If they are used to complete an outfit, they may be constructed or selected.
10. All other accessories and undergarments may be constructed or selected.

$20 Clothing Event Challenge

Purpose: This class is designed to expand the 4-H member's shopping experience to shopping venues emphasizing recycling, reducing, and reusing. Outfits must be purchased at a garage sale, consignment store, thrift store, secondhand store, or similar place.

1. Online venues are allowed, must be second-hand in nature. Shipping and handling are not included in the total calculations.
2. Traditional shopping venues may not be used, regardless of a low regular or sale price. Hand-me-downs or clothing as gifts do not qualify for this class.

3. Twenty dollars is the purchase price limit including tax. However, some secondhand stores and venues do not typically charge sales tax.
4. Receipt(s) for every item included as a part of the calculated total must be submitted with the entry. A garage sale receipt can be a piece of paper with the name of the location such as “Jane Doe garage sale”, date, amount paid, and signature of person selling at the garage sale. If the outfit was free at a garage sale, “free” can be listed on the report form and on the receipt. Failure to provide receipts will be reflected in the evaluation.
5. An outfit consists of major clothing pieces such as a shirt and pants or a dress. Shoes, undergarments, and accessories are not included in the $20 purchase price limit.
6. Alterations are permitted to achieve a desired look or fit.
7. There are no additional considerations for an outfit that totals less than $20.

The outfit pieces should be purchased to meet the 4-H member’s goal or intended use for the purchased outfit, and the 4-H member should have had an experience in choosing shopping alternatives, evaluating fit, quality and construction features, price, and cost $20 Challenge

Clothing Selection

All participants, (male or female) to qualify for participation in this event, should select and/or purchase an outfit that represents their goal or intended use for the outfit. The purpose of this program is to help youth develop skills in buying clothes. Note: Outfits may be selected and/or purchased from any source, including consignment shops, used clothing stores, etc. Clothing items which are home-sewn are not eligible unless the completed garment was purchased from a used clothing source. Clothing items which are custom sewn specifically for the participant are not eligible.

1. A member need not be enrolled in the clothing project to participate in the Clothing Selection program.
2. A 4-H member may participate in both the Fashion Revue and Clothing Selection program but is limited to one entry in each.
3. A garment entered in the Clothing Selection may be entered as a clothing exhibit at the fair. However, an outfit selected for State Fair Clothing Selection cannot be selected as a State Fair clothing exhibit.
4. Ribbons are awarded to everyone who participates in the judging and Style Show. Honorable mention ribbons will be awarded to the most outstanding entries. To receive a ribbon, 4-Hers must participate in the style show in addition to the conference judging.

12202: Int. Clothing Selection

12203: Sr. Clothing Selection

12204: Clover Kids Clothing Selection

Innovative Design

1. The purpose of this class is to encourage creativity and out-of-the-box thinking when creating an outfit.
2. These designs can be theatrical costumes, cosplay, wearable technology, sustainable/upcycled fashion, accessible fashion, and/or outfits that use unconventional materials.

3. The outfit must be showcased as a worn garment modeled by the exhibitor or by the individual that it was designed for.
4. Exhibitors may make their garment entirely, or permanently alter the silhouette of pre-existing materials through some method of permanent alteration or addition.
5. Consideration is given to originality and innovation.

Iowa State Fair Clothing Event Eligibility & Rules

1. Each youth may only participate in the 4-H Awardrobe Clothing Event with only one entry per year. Participants may be selected to participate in any one of the four classes, even if they participated in that class in previous years.
2. Each county may send the following number of participants in each class to represent their county, selected from each of the county's events:
  - a. Fashion Revue Class: Four participants total with no more than two (2) participants with an entry in any given category (athletic wear, formal wear, everyday wear, costume).
  - b. $20 Challenge Class: Four participants total with no more than two (2) participants with an entry in any given category (athletic wear, formal wear, everyday wear, costume).
  - c. Clothing Selection Class: Four participants total with no more than two (2) participants with an entry in any given category (athletic wear, formal wear, everyday wear, costume).
  - d. Innovative Design Class: Four participants total with no more than two (2) participants with an entry in any given category (athletic wear, formal wear, everyday wear, costume).
3. The categories in each class are simply for entry limit purposes. All entries in each class will be judged together.
4. Participants must be in the senior 4-H designated level (completed grades 9 – 12 the same year as the event).
5. Outfits or accessories which will be worn during the State 4-H Awardrobe Clothing Event may not be entered as another 4-H Iowa State Fair exhibit.
6. Participants must bring the garment or outfit they purchased or created, and accessories, to the State 4-H Awardrobe Clothing Event.
7. Participants should submit only the materials requested for each class (report form and photo – for ALL classes - plus a receipt for $20 challenge). If additional materials are sent with the entry or brought to the conference judging, they will not be considered.
8. Participant report forms must be uploaded by county staff no later than July 31. Participants should abide by county deadlines for submitting paperwork for entry. Requests for class or group time changes will be honored as availability allows through July 31. Requests made after July 31 cannot be accommodated due to our printing deadlines.
9. A $30 registration fee is required for each participant entry. Counties will be billed following the Iowa State Fair.
10. All participants must participate in all Awardrobe Clothing Event activities at the times scheduled for their county unless the 4-H member is involved in another Iowa State Fair 4-H activity at the same time with a non-flexible schedule. Pre-approval is required prior to July 31.
