RULES

1. General Livestock Rules and Regulations and 4-H General Rules and Regulations apply in this department.
2. Dairy milking goats must be on the fairgrounds by 8:00 am day of the show. Dairy milking goats must be milked out after 9:00 pm the night before the show. Maximum allowed milk in utter is 12 hours. Dairy milking goats will be released after the show.
3. All goats must use wood shavings.
4. The eight recognized breeds by the American Dairy Goat Association are: Nubians, LaManchas, Alpines, Oberhaslis, Toggenburgs, Saanens, Sable, and Nigerian Dwarf.
5. Dairy goats must be clipped and groomed before arrival at the fair.
6. Dairy goats must be dehorned before arrival at the fair.
7. The Junior Division consists of does under 24 months of age that are not in milk and have never freshened.
8. No bucks are allowed.
9. All goats must originate from a state-certified brucellosis-free herd or from a class “free” state (brucellosis) or have a negative brucellosis test performed within 90 days of the exhibition. In addition, they must originate from a herd having a negative tuberculosis test within the last twelve months, from a class “free” state (TB); or have a record of a negative tuberculosis test performed within 90 days of exhibition.
10. All sexually intact goats must be identified with an individual Scrapie Flock of Origin identification tag or by an official tattoo registered with USDA (to register, call 1-866-873-2824).
11. Dairy goats qualify for Dairy Goat Showmanship and for Master Showmanship.
12. When showing Dairy Goats, a plain white shirt and white pants is recommended. May wear 4-H/FFA exhibitor t-shirt.
13. If there are less than three entries in a class, the superintendent will have the choice to group the class with another comparable class.
14. No choke collars may be used in the show ring.
15. Exhibitors are expected to care for their animals in an acceptable manner. Any abusive care (slapping, neglect, etc.) can lead to disqualification. Any concerns about abusive care should be directed to the goat superintendent.
16. Dairy wether goats, please refer to meat goat rules and classes.
17. One entry per person per class.
18. Substitution of animals will only be allowed if the replacement animal was previously registered on 4hOnline by May 15. Substitution can only be used if the animal is sick and unable to show.
19. Showmanship: Showmanship will be open to all 4-H dairy goat exhibitors. Exhibitors choosing to participate are not required to be signed up ahead of time. There will be three divisions: Junior - Grades 4-6; Intermediate - Grades 7-8; Senior - Grades 9-12. Exhibitors must show their own animal. The judge will place 5 exhibitors in the showmanship class. Results will be announced at the conclusion of the show and recipients will receive awards at that time. The decision of the showmanship judge is final. There will be no interference, and no one is allowed in the ring. The champion will be asked if they would like to participate in Master Showmanship. If the champion has already participated in Master Showmanship and won in their age division, they must pass on to the next exhibitor after the champion.
