Expectations of Youth who serve on Cedar County Youth Council 2019-2020

Attend the Youth Council Retreat: Date TBA for fall 2019. You’ll meet and get to know fellow members from Cedar, Jones and Clinton counties, set goals, and make plans for Cedar County 4-H events, service projects, and recreational activities for the council.

Attendance: The Youth Council will meet the third Wednesday of each month in the evening and attendance is important. You must attend at least 75% of the meetings. Excused absences include: school activities in which you participate, church activities, 4-H club meetings, illness and family emergencies. Call one of the advisors if something comes up and you can’t attend.

Participation: Come prepared. Bring your calendar. Be on time. Be willing to work outside of meeting times. Be active on committees. Report back to clubs about what the Youth Council is doing.

Plan and Lead: You must attend and help with at least three county-wide events. A big part of County Council is attending and helping with things such as: 4-H Night at the Ballgame, the Lock In, New Member Night, Dodgeball Tournament, Clover Kids Fun Friday, and the County Fair.

Participate in the fundraising project(s).

Participate in the Service Learning Project(s).

Attitude: Have a positive attitude and a good work ethic. Be a good role model. Have fun with what you do. Be responsible and respectful.

Participate in a County Communication Project: Communications is a huge part of being an effective County Council member. As a County Council member, you must participate in one of the following: Clothing Event, Working Exhibit, Educational Presentation, Share the Fun, or Extemporaneous Speaking.

HAVE FUN and MAKE NEW FRIENDS!
