Description

Created by the industry for the industry, the ServSafe® food safety training program is one of the industry’s strongest educational programs administered by the National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation. Iowa State University Extension and Outreach is offering special training to help you meet the industry standards and your obligation to consumers. ServSafe is recognized by more federal, state and local health jurisdictions than any other food safety training program in the United States. A score of 75% or higher is required to be certified by the NRAEF. Certification is valid for five years.

Registration Information

The $150 registration fee ($100 for current Iowa Restaurant Association Members with membership verified at time of registration) will cover:

- 8 hours of training
- ServSafe® Manager 6th Edition Book
- Exam and Certification

CERTIFIED SERVSAFE® INSTRUCTOR

Vera Stokes has been a certified instructor and proctor since 2004. She graduated from The University of Tennessee with BS and MS degrees in Home Economics. Vera currently serves a 4-county region in eastern Iowa.

ServSafe training will provide knowledge every food service professional must know about food hazards and proper food handling practices in order to keep food safe in an establishment.

OTHER TRAINING OPTIONS:

If you do not require your employees to be certified, but want them to have further food sanitation and safety education, consider these options:

♦ ServSafe Non-Certified - $75/person
  Participants receive 7 hours of course instruction. They receive no book or exam.

♦ SafeFood - $35/person
  This 2½ hour program is based on ServSafe and is designed to educate all food handlers on food safety basics. Sessions are individually scheduled by contacting Vera Stokes at (563) 210-0587 or vstokes@iastate.edu A minimum of 10 people are needed to hold a session. Businesses can combine staff to meet the minimum attendance requirements.
