Iowa State University Extension and Outreach provides ongoing access to education — as we anticipate issues, act in catalytic ways, and stay for the long haul. That’s our commitment to Iowans and to Iowa’s future.

Anticipating Issues

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ISU EXTENSION AND OUTREACH ANTICIPATES EMERGING ISSUES AND TRENDS. We ask questions and provide education so Iowans can thrive and succeed.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| “The emerging issue … to help people develop skills and tools so they can thrive as a caregiver and not just survive.”
– Donna Donald, ISU Extension specialist, Powerful Tools for Caregivers |
| “Extension is able to anticipate what students and 4-H’ers need … to be part of something … and be successful.”
– Deann Hebert, teacher, East High, Des Moines |
| “We’re working on policy, on expanding our energy portfolio … how we can create and work on our own energy needs.”
– Scott Timm, ISU Extension specialist, Fairfield |

Acting in Catalytic Ways

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ISU EXTENSION AND OUTREACH ACTS IN CATALYTIC WAYS — CREATING OPPORTUNITIES AND BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS. We bring the right people together to move Iowa forward.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| “It sure has been a catalyst for our growth. Any manufacturer in Iowa should look to CIRAS for any type of help.”
– Cindy Danielson, Hy-Capacity Inc., Humboldt |
| “West Liberty Economic Area Development created a partnership with Iowa State University Extension … focused on creating economic development in rural communities.”
– Karen Lathrop, WE-LEAD executive director and ISU Extension specialist, West Liberty |
| “Extension brought many people to the table … to talk about different roles that they can play in this work (Northeast Iowa Farm to School education).”
– Teresa Wiemerslage, extension communications and program coordinator |

Staying for the Long Haul

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ISU EXTENSION AND OUTREACH STAYS FOR THE LONG HAUL. We’re there when needs arise. We partner and provide resources, research, and education to assist Iowans.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| “Extension has been a part of our operation every year. The future will be on the research-based studies they do, and the research that we can grab to make educated decisions.”
– Dana Sleezer, farmer, Aurelia |
| “We don’t have any other venue to find out these issues — and that is why Iowa State Extension continuing education is extremely important to all cities in the state of Iowa.”
– Debra Hartman, city clerk, Sheffield |
| “We’ll be here six months from when the event happened … five years from now … 10 years from now. We are part of the community.”
– Greg Walston, Benton County extension program director |
Iowa State University Extension and Outreach can anticipate trends, build relationships, and catalyze opportunities because we are part of the ongoing life of Iowa’s communities, committed to healthy people, healthy environments, and healthy economies. We're people advancing people.
