

County Extension Council

MAKE CHANGE HAPPEN

WE ENGAGE ALL
IOWANS

IN SOLVING
TODAY'S PROBLEMS

AND PREPARING
FOR A THRIVING
FUTURE

- Council members believe in education, understand what people need, and care about their community.
- Council members work with decision makers, build relationships, and address local issues.
- Council members are advocates, stewards, and everyday citizens who link people with life-changing programs.
- Make your voice heard as an extension council member!

COUNCIL MEMBERS ARE ELECTED OFFICIALS

- Represent Iowa State University Extension and Outreach and act on our behalf locally.
- Represent your county – you bring an understanding of local issues to important decisions about educational opportunities.
- Bring significant programs to your county and region that help people solve critical issues affecting their lives.

HOW DO YOU BEGIN?

- As a qualified voter in the extension district (county), you are eligible to be a candidate for county extension council.
- Contact your county extension or county auditor's office for candidate petition papers.
- Get dates, deadlines, and other details from your county extension office, your county auditor (commissioner of elections), or www.extension.iastate.edu/countyservices

Join us. We're focused on feeding people, keeping them healthy, helping their communities to prosper and thrive, and turning the world over to the next generation in better shape than we found it.

- We bring campus to you. With nearly 1,200 faculty and staff on campus and across the state and 100 county offices, Extension and Outreach gives Iowa State University a 99 county campus.

- Nearly 91,000 K-12 youth participated in six or more hours of our youth development education. 4-H programs prepare youth for higher education and careers as they build STEM, communication, leadership, and other skills.

- We provide skills training for more than 50,000 community leaders, local government officials, business owners, entrepreneurs, and volunteers. They are improving their capacity to promote civic engagement, build coalitions, and increase local economic development.

- More than 43,000 early childhood education professionals participated in our educational programming. They've gained skills and knowledge to provide high quality child care and support children's development and early learning.

- We made over 288,000 contacts with farmers and agribusinesses through meetings, face-to-face consultations, and phone and email discussions. Our specialists present research-based information and answer technical questions to help Iowans make sound decisions and grow the economic base of Iowa agriculture.
