

Inaugural Midwest
Youth
Dairy
Goat
Judging Contest

Midwest Youth Dairy Goat Judging Contest

Quad-State Classic Dairy Goat Show – Clay County Fairgrounds, Spencer, IA

Friday, July 14 – 4-8:00 pm CDT

PURPOSE: Provide youth involved with dairy goats (4-H, FFA or dairy goat breed association youth programs) the opportunity to develop the skills inherent in a judging program, namely: conformation evaluation, vocabulary, logical thinking, public speaking and the development of personal confidence and poise.

Individuals and teams: Teams will be comprised of up to four individuals in each division (novice and senior) with the top scoring three individuals being tally for the team score. A novice will be less than 15 years old on the day of the contest and have no experience judging. A senior will be 15 to 21 years of age on the day of the contest. If an individual is not associated with a team, he/she will be eligible to compete for individual awards.

Registration of individuals and teams can be done on-line at:

<https://go.iastate.edu/9IUOOS> or at the show between 3:00 and 3:30 pm. Team registration fee is $10 plus $5 for each individual. Individuals with no team affiliation are eligible to compete. Complete rules are available on-line at:

<https://www.extension.iastate.edu/dairyteam/dairy-goats-sheep>

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY
Extension and Outreach

Dairy Team

Hosted by:

