The fee for this program is $5 per in-person session, webinar session is free. Please register a week before each session to help with program materials.

On-line Registration is available at: https://go.iastate.edu/SMVWPZ

For more information:
Jennifer Bentley
563-382-2949
jbentley@iastate.edu

The fees for service will be used to offset direct expenses and to support the Agriculture and Natural Resources County Extension
Transition Cow Management
Gail Carpenter, ISU Assistant Dairy Teaching/Research Professor, will provide information on transition cow care, maternity management, and research around transition cows. Gail will demonstrate on-farm tools that can be used to monitor transition cow health.

March 3, 2022
McAllister Dairy Farm
27334 North Bankston Road
New Vienna, IA
1:00 - 3:00 PM

Early Life Calf Care
Jenn Bentley, Iowa State University Extension and Outreach Dairy Field Specialist share tips, tools, and best management practices for early life care. Jenn will demonstrate on-farm tools that can be used to monitor colostrum quality and success of passive transfer.

March 10, 2022
McAllister Dairy Farm
27334 North Bankston Road
New Vienna, IA
1:00 - 3:00 PM

Employee Management
Melissa O'Rourke, Iowa State University Extension and Outreach, Farm & Agribusiness Management Specialist, will discuss best management practices for hiring, retaining, and evaluating dairy farm employees. There will be time for discussion and Q&A with Melissa and participants during the live webinar.

March 17, 2022*
via ZOOM webinar

*link will be emailed after registration is received.

Noon - 1:30 PM

“I calve out 200 cows a year, but I learned so much from this program!”

Join us to learn with women just like you! All sessions are planned for women working on or managing dairy cow herds with lots of hands-on and discussion opportunities.