The ISUEO Specialists are asking livestock producers and employees to participate in a farm labor survey to identify issues common to employers and employees in an effort to develop programming.

Northwest Iowa Farm Labor Conference
Tuesday, April 17

Employee Track
6 to 8 pm—Childcare Available
Sioux County Extension Office, Orange City
6:00 Light Dinner
6:15 What Does Immigrant Labor Mean To A Community and Why We Need A Labor Survey, Hector Bombiella, ISU
6:45 Consistent Management Practices For People and Animal Welfare, Dr. Hugo Ramiez, ISU
7:30 Creating Community For Immigrant Labor in Sioux County, Lori Hayungs, ISU
8:00 Complete Surveys and Adjourn

Employer Track
Sioux County Extension Office, Orange City
9:15 Why We Need A Labor Survey, Fred M. Hall
ISUEO
9:30 What Does Community Mean To Immigrant Labor, Hector Bombiella, ISU
10:30 Break
10:45 Consistent Management Practices For People And Animal Welfare, Dr. Hugo Ramiez, ISU
12 Noon Lunch
12:45 Creating Community For Immigrant Labor In Sioux County, Lori Hayungs, ISUEO Families
1:30 Complete Surveys and adjourn

NO REGISTRATION FEE
Pre-registration required by calling 712.737.4230

ISUEO Dairy Team
Fred M. Hall, NW Iowa Dairy Field Specialist
ISUEO Family Life Team
Lori Hayungs, Human Sciences Specialist