A one-day program designed for dairy managers and others involved in production agriculture who are facing shrinking margins in a changing world.

July 31, 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. OR August 1, 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.
Pinter’s Garden & Pumpkins, Decorah or Forster Community Center, Rock Rapids

- Gain helpful insight into options to increase profitability
- Discuss and share potential issues and savings related to Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS)
- Look at new benchmarks, ratios and trendlines when considering capital investments

- Discover what changes ag lenders will be looking for in the future
- Understand how to maximize the benefit of risk management tools

Featuring Tom Thaden, Northwest Iowa Farm Business Association; Joleen Hadrich, University of MN; Cassie Monger, Compeer Financial; Fred Hall, Iowa State University Extension and Outreach; as well as a panel of local ag lenders.

Register Online: https://form.jotform.com/4Hregion1/planning-for-profitability or call 563-382-2949 to pre-register for the Decorah meeting; or 712-737-4230 to pre-register for the Rock Rapids meeting.
Questions can be directed to Dairy Specialists Jennifer Bentley (563-382-2949, jbentley@iastate.edu) or Fred Hall (712-737-4230, fredhall@iastate.edu).
Another Upcoming Dairy Program:
Financial Impairment on the Farm Webinar
July 30, 2019 - Noon to 1:00 p.m.
A free webinar for producers focused on reorganization options, mediation and Chapter 12 Bankruptcy.
Register Here: https://bit.ly/2KvTvoe