1. Working Exhibits provide an opportunity for Clover Kids to communicate and interact with an audience in an informal way.
2. Working Exhibits may be on any topic. The best subjects involve actions by the child or involve the audience in some doing, tasting, smelling, or judging. The child's subject should be an outgrowth of his/her 4-H/Clover Kid experience.
3. A Working Exhibit may be given by one or more Clover Kids.
4. Each individual or group will furnish their own supplies. The child should have enough supplies for 6 participants.
5. Many stages of the exhibit or product should be ready so that any step can be discussed. Questions that might be asked as starters are:
  - a) Have you seen ...?
  - b) Would you like to know how to ...?
  - c) May I show you how ... ?
6. Working Exhibits will be evaluated on the following criteria:
  - a) Topic- interesting, suitability, and knowledge of topic.
  - b) Presentation - enthusiasm, techniques, informal approach (involvement of audience, information presented, and ability to handle questions, education value and personal appearance).
7. The Working Exhibit Presentation should be no longer than 5 minutes.
