About Josey & Ray

This scholarship is in memory of Josey (Molony & Ray Feeney) long time 4-H leaders for the Washington Wonder Workers & Washington Senators respectively. Josey was “great” with presentations and helping young ladies with their sewing projects. Of the “4-Hs” in 4-H, Josey was definitely the Heart. Her kindness and generosity in mentoring and nurturing her young charges was a result of her belief in leading through service. “Ironically Josey passed away on entry day of the Dubuque County Fair in 1968. Ray was a quiet man and lived the motto of “I pledge my hands to larger service Ray’s capacity for friendship, generosity and inspirational leadership strongly influenced many of the young 4-Hers who were lucky enough to experience his tutelage.
