

Emmet County 4-H Clubs

Emmet County has 8 traditional 4-H clubs and 4 specialty clubs. 4-H members can join specialty clubs if they meet the requirements specific to the club. Specialty groups vary from activity, as listed below. Be sure to sign up for the Emmet County 4-H Family email, check the Emmet County Extension Website, and 4-H Facebook page for information on current and upcoming activities.

Advanced Cooking Club

Club Leader: Carri Duitsman

This club is targeted towards older youth that already have basic experience in the kitchen. Meeting throughout the year, this club teaches new skills and techniques, as well as experience new and exciting dishes that members can take home to make for their family and friends.

Dog Obedience Group

Club Leaders: Suzanne West, Bobbie Sue Marth, and Ethan Marth

This club is a perfect fit for 4-H members who want to learn and gain experience in how to work with their dog. 4-Her's can learn a variety of ways to handle their dog and work with experienced leaders. This is a great way to help dogs learn obedience and have members learn the techniques to train them.

Horse Practices

Club Leaders: Missy Lutat and Halley Waddell

Beginning around May/June, 4-Her's meet with Horse Practice leaders to learn new skills and techniques when working with their horse. These practices help members understand horse safety and help prepare them to show their horse at the fair.

Wildlife Group

Club Leaders: Ashley Reed and Katelyn Herzberg

Using the WHEP outline (Wildlife Habitat Education Program), members can get out into the great outdoors to learn about wildlife and nature. Members can learn to identify animals from tracks and scat, learn why an animal has a certain habitat, and how to best help animals thrive in nature.
