12. The Cameron Owen 4-H Enthusiasm Award was established in 2017 to honor Cameron Owen, a member of the Washington P.E.P. 4-H Club. Cam lived and loved 4-H. Every year, he gave his best effort on his projects, whether it was his pigs, sheep, welding, baking or being part of his club's Share the Fun skit. His projects may not have been perfect, but he did them himself, with pride, and gave everything he had. Fremont County 4-H club leaders will nominate members who have shown this same 4-H spirit. To qualify, members must be currently enrolled in a Fremont County 4-H club. Clover Kids are not eligible. Nominations must include a short description of the nominee, a summary of his/her participation in 4-H, and why he/she is deserving of the award. The recipient will be chosen by a committee and will be recognized according to the Fair Schedule.
13. The Lean, Mean & Green award recognizes a 4-H static project that is creative, innovative, or comprised of outstanding engineering, and promotes reduction in the use of resources, repurposing of common materials, or other measures considered environmentally responsible. Winner(s) will be determined by static judges and designated by special recognition.
14. The Fremont County 4-H Endowment Fund was established in 1993 by the generosity and foresight of Ellen Rice of Hamburg. She left a portion of her estate to benefit Fremont County 4-H. The Endowment Fund has a six-member board, which oversees its use. Since establishment, the fund has grown through memorial donations and gifts from generous individuals and families. It is the hope of the Endowment Fund board that the Fremont County 4-H members can be supported through the increase in value of the fund and the principal can be left to support 4-H members in the years ahead. Grants are awarded to qualifying graduating seniors annually to further their education. The board also oversees the Dan and Susan Monaghan Scholarship fund. Current board members are Keith Jones, Thurman; Carolyn Maher, Sidney; Pam Nebel, Farragut; Grant Schaaf, Randolph; Kayla Walter, Farragut; and Mandy Maher, Shenandoah. If you wish to make a donation, or designate Fremont County 4-H in your estate planning, see a board member or call Fremont County Extension at (712) 374-2351.
