2010 Projects

Quality Control Projects

Quality Control: Research Assistance and Support, Quality Analyses

The grain quality lab will provide no or low cost sample analyses for compositional or other traits, for public researchers, CSI partners, and ISU germplasm licensees in Iowa. A program to share instrument calibrations has also been developed and will be promoted. The fee for service sample testing service will be operated as an Extension cost recovery activity.