2011 Projects

Quality Control Projects

Quality Control: Research Assistance and Support, Quality Analyses

The grain quality lab will provide low cost sample analyses for compositional or other traits, for public researchers, CSI partners, and ISU germplasm licensees in Iowa. Instrument calibrations will also be shared. Several new participants will join, as a result of a newly funded organic agriculture grant to the USDA unit on campus. The fee for service operations are operated as an Extension cost recovery activity.