Stages of Consultation

4. Evaluating & Transitioning

3. Implementing the Plan

2. Assessing & Planning

1. Initiating the Partnership

Consultation begins with building a partnership of mutual respect and trust. The consultant and client can then jointly assess and plan program improvements. After implementing the plan, the consultant and client reassess. The consultant helps the client transition to a new program improvement plan or program.