Children and Tragedy

Following is a collection of resources for use in the aftermath of a tragedy involving children. This is not an inclusive list but rather a beginning that will lead the reader to numerous other resources.

- Iowa State University Extension and Outreach
  Support Children When There Is Scary News
  Let’s Talk ... Child Care
  Let's Talk ... Scary News
  Science of Parenting
  And The People Cried

- CYFERnet
  Coping with Violence and National Tragedy

- Child Care Exchange
  When the World is a Dangerous Place — Helping Children Deal with Violence in the News

- New York Times
  Tips for Talking to Children About the Shooting

- National Child Traumatic Stress Network
  Talking to Children about the Shooting

- National Association of School Psychologists
  A National Tragedy: Helping Children Cope
  Crisis Caregivers: Taking Care of Ourselves
  School Crisis: Aftermath for Caregivers

- U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
  Tips for Talking to Children and Youth after Traumatic Events

- Fred Rogers' advice from Family Communications
  Helping Children Deal with Tragic Events in the News
• American Psychological Association
  Helping Your Children Manage Distress in the Aftermath of a Shooting

• Chicago Tribune
  What to tell kids about traumatic events

• eXtension
  Loss and Grief - Talking with Children

• Zero To Three
  Little Listeners in an Uncertain World: Coping strategies for you and your young child

• The National Center for Child Traumatic Stress
  Tips on Anticipating Anniversary Reactions to Traumatic Events

December 18, 2012