All breeding sheep will need to come and get a 4-H tag. Retinal scanning fee is $8/head for in county residents. Ak-Sar-Ben is $8/head for in county residents.

Junior Camp Information
Iowa County 4th – 6th grade 4-H’ers are invited to attend Region 15 4-H Jr. Camp, June 16-18 held at Crooked Creek Camp south of Washington. Youth will enjoy air conditioned nights with climbing wall, a giant water slide, fishing, archery, games, tie-dying and team challenges during the day. Johnson, Keokuk and Washington County 4-H’ers will also attend, so it’s a perfect time to make new 4-H friends. Space is limited and registrations will be accepted first come, first serve. Registrations were mailed out and is attached to this e-mail. Again this year, the Iowa County 4-H Foundation is able to provide a $50 scholarship to all Iowa County participants. With that scholarship, camp is reduced to a $100 payment and registration form due by May 1st to the Extension Office. For more information about Region 5 4-H Jr. Camp or Iowa County 4-H program contact Mary Veatch 319-668-1052, mkaiser@iastate.edu

4-H Project Materials
