4-H Dodge ball Tournament Rules

- Teams of 6 or less

- Six minute games with possible ‘jail break’ at 3.5 minutes or 1 other time as ‘caller’ sees fit.

- Game is over when all team members are out or at 6 minute limit

- If both teams have equal number of players after 6 minutes, they will play 1 minute overtime.

- Hitting someone else in the head means you’re out

- When the person who gets you out, is out, you are back in the game

- If you hit someone below the neck, they are out

- If someone on the opposite team catches your ball, you’re out

- If you cross the center line, you’re out

- If someone gets hit & as the ball is flying away from them someone else catches it, the person who threw it is out

- If a ball is used to deflect another ball & someone catches it, the person who threw the ball is out

- If you go out of bounds, other than to get a ball, you’re out

- If a player bends down, any part of the body may be hit-NO blocking with the head will be allowed.

- Once the ball hits the ground it is a dead ball

- Referees have final call!!!! No arguing! Show good sportsmanship

- Let’s have FUN!
