Iowa 4-H Policy Regarding Clover Kids Members Working with Animals

Iowa State University Extension and Iowa 4-H Youth Development programs support safe, educational, and developmentally sound small animal activities for Clover Kids groups. Appropriate animals for this age group (K – 3rd grade) are pets and bucket bottle projects. Specifically excluded animals are swine, horses, beef (other than bucket bottle), and dairy (other than bucket bottle).

In fair settings, 4-H Clover Kids members who have engaged in a group activity may exhibit or showcase their work in a noncompetitive event or activity. All Clover Kids animal exhibiting/showcasing opportunities must be cooperative and not competitive. 4-H Clover Kids are not eligible to receive premium funds as a result of exhibition. 4-H Clover Kids may receive participatory ribbons, but may not receive regular competitive purple, blue, red, or white 4-H fair/exhibit ribbons.

The physical and emotional safety of children is a prime consideration. Special procedures, such as joint leading and/or close proximity of adults need to be employed to promote and protect children's safety. In general, the handling of all animals requires discipline and motor skills that have yet to be fully developed in most K - 3rd grade children, and when coupled with animals' unpredictable behavior, does not provide optimal safe educational environments.

Insurance coverage (accident or liability) for Clover Kids programs involving small animals is contingent upon conducting age appropriate programs that are in compliance with Iowa State University, ISU Extension, and Iowa 4-H policies, regulations, and guidelines. Contact your local county Extension office to learn more about securing insurance coverage for Clover Kids programs.
