5 Great Reasons to Visit Your Local Farmers' Market

Exceptional taste and freshness. You'll find high quality, farm-fresh produce at your local farmers' market.

Try something new. At farmers' markets you often find your favorite items plus you may find fruits and vegetables that are new to you. A great opportunity to discover a new favorite!

Supports the local economy. Buying local keeps more of your dollars circulating close to home and helps build the local economy.

Helps the environment. It takes less miles to bring locally grown food from farm to table. Plus, most growers you meet at a farmers' market follow sustainable growing practices.

Helps build community. Customers can get to know the growers and ask questions about how the food is grown or how to prepare it. Plus, the farmers' market is a great place to bring the kids or to catch up with friends and neighbors. Many markets also host community events.

Iowa State University Extension and Outreach programs are available to all without regard to race, color, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, sex, marital status, disability, or status as a U.S. veteran.
